Under new business: Motion made and passed that a use permit be obtained for removing gravel near the cement bridge. Gravel would be removed at no cost by John Simpson and this potential flood hazard minimized.

Also under n.b. mention was made of the need for another rock-picking social gathering. Volunteers were believed abundant and no motion was believed necessary. A tentative date of Nov.14, a Sunday was selected.

The need for a telephone committee was also discussed. No motion was required.

Ballard White asked for suggestions for the profit (status) committee (*according to Franchise Tax Board)

ASSESSOR'S OFFICE

Under Social Committee it was reported that the Interclub dinner and dance was scheduled for Saturday night, Nov.13 at the Hyatt House in Salinas. The C.V. Horsemen's Xmas party is scheduled for Saturday Dec.18.

A tentative date for the annual meeting and social get-together for the fourth quarter was selected as December 10. Ed McGlochlin was appointed to work up a social schedule on an annual basis.

Ballard White reported on interclub affairs: that the announced objective is to prepare and train our members for better shows. In this area there was three sets of rules. It was moved and passed that (all T & S shows follow CSHA and AHSA rules including equipment and Dress.) It was also moved and passed that we endorse any interclub action in conducting all shows under CSHA and AHSA rules also. This would be for all shows regardless of size.

Bob Angell read a letter requesting a $20. donation towards financing
